

Amphibians and reptiles in the Anthropocene –
aspects of nature conservation

Minisymposium on 18 April 2023

ILWA-SR 27, Ilse-Wallentin-Haus Peter-Jordan-Str. 82, 1. Untergeschoß

10:00-11:00

"Herpetological research and conservation of the Vienna Zoo: success and challenges"

Dr. Doris Preininger

Wissenschaftliche Mitarbeiterin | Science & Research
Schönbrunner Tiergarten GmbH

11:00-12:00

"Hybridization and Conservation. What to protect, and why?"

Univ. Doz. Dr. Günter Gollmann

Department of Evolutionary Biology
University of Vienna

ILWA-SR 29, Ilse-Wallentin-Haus Peter-Jordan-Str. 82, Erdgeschoß

14:00-15:00

"Anthropogenic activities threaten the 'jewels' of the rainforest"

Bibiana Rojas, PhD

Assistant Professor of Global Change Biology, Department of Interdisciplinary Life Sciences
Konrad Lorenz Institute of Ethology, University of Veterinary Medicine

15:00-16:00

"Title to be announced"

Dr. Silke Schweiger

Kuratorin, wissensch. Mitarbeiterin, 1. Zoologische Abteilung, Herpetologische Sammlung
Naturhistorisches Museum Wien

16:00-17:00

Final discussion